How to use this book

Read a joke, pause at the question, and try to guess the answer before you read on. Best of all: read them out loud to a friend, a grown-up, or your class. A good laugh makes the tricky stuff easier – that's real science.

Puns

Why did the dancer bring a notebook to class?

💡 To jot down some footnotes!

What do you call a dancing lamb?

💡 A baa-llerina!

Why did the hip-hop dancer go to the bank?

💡 To check their balance!

What's a dancer's favorite kind of bread?

💡 Whole-wheat -- because it's all about the turnout!

Why was the tap dancer always welcome at parties?

💡 They really knew how to make an entrance!

What did the choreographer say when the dance was perfect?

💡 "That was on pointe!"

Why did the dancer sit on the floor?

💡 They were working on their floor routine!

What's a ghost's favorite dance?

💡 The boogie!

Why are dancers never cold?

💡 Because they always have warm-ups!

What did the contemporary dancer say about their routine?

💡 "It's moving, really moving!"

Why did the salsa dancer bring chips to rehearsal?

💡 They heard there'd be a great dip!

What do you call a dancer who loves math?

💡 Someone who really knows their angles -- especially at 90 degrees in second position!

Why did the ballet dancer always win arguments?

💡 They had a great point of view -- en pointe, actually!

What's a breakdancer's favorite subject?

💡 Spin-ology!

Why did the dance teacher go to the eye doctor?

💡 To improve their spot technique!

What do you call a lazy dancer?

💡 Someone who takes too many rests between the beats!

Why did the dancer refuse to eat soup?

💡 They were afraid of doing the splits!

What did one jazz hand say to the other?

💡 "Let's give them a round of a-paws!"

Why did the choreographer love telling stories?

💡 Because every dance has a narrative arc -- and a grand jeté!

What's a dancer's favorite letter?

💡 The letter "B" -- because of pliés, battements, and bourrées!
