Puns

Why did the stop-motion animator always finish last?

💡 They kept taking things frame by frame!

What did one frame say to the next?

💡 "Just stay still -- I'll be right after you!"

Why are stop-motion characters so patient?

💡 They only move a tiny bit at a time!

What's an animator's favorite vegetable?

💡 An artichoke -- because art is no joke! (Okay, maybe it is.)

Why did the clay character feel flat?

💡 Because someone squished its performance!

What did the onion skin layer say?

💡 "I may be transparent, but I'm still important to the picture!"

Why was the storyboard always prepared?

💡 It had the whole story mapped out in advance!

What do you call a stop-motion movie about a bakery?

💡 A frame-cake production!

Why did the puppet go to acting school?

💡 To improve its expressions -- it was a bit wooden!

What did the scene background say to the character?

💡 "Don't mind me -- I'm just here to set the scene!"

Why was the timeline always stressed?

💡 It had too much on its schedule!

What's a stop-motion animator's favorite dance?

💡 The frame-enco!

Why did the GIF get an award?

💡 For its outstanding loop performance!

What did the animator say after a long day?

💡 "That's a wrap -- 200 frames of it!"

Why was the emotion chart always smiling?

💡 Because it expressed itself so well!

What do you call a dramatic pause in stop-motion?

💡 A still moment of suspense!

Why did the prop keep stealing scenes?

💡 It was a scene-stealer by design!

What's a social story's superpower?

💡 Helping you see things from someone else's frame of reference!

Why did the camera stay in one spot?

💡 It was taking a tripod stance on the issue!

What did the first frame say to the last frame?

💡 "From start to finish, we really told a story!"
