Key ideas at a glance

The big concepts this cast helps you master:

- Lateral reading — leave the page to evaluate a source
 - Source credibility — authority, ownership, and funding
 - Bias and framing — how presentation shapes meaning
 - Claims and evidence — claim, warrant, and support
 - Steelmanning — engaging the strongest opposing case
 - Logical fallacies — structural flaws in reasoning
 - Rhetoric and persuasion — ethos, pathos, logos, and technique
 - Statistics in the news — what a number shows and hides
 - Civic institutions and process — how decisions get made
 - Rights and responsibilities — balancing a right
 - Deliberation and common ground — finding shared interests
 - Propaganda and manipulation — recognizing manipulative techniques
 - Media production ethics — building an honest message
 - Policy trade-offs — costs, benefits, and who's affected
 - Perspective-taking — understanding views across differences
 - Capstone — evaluate, steelman, deliberate, and craft a message
