

Readpals — Concept Poster

Print this and pin it up — an at-a-glance map of the Readpals cast and the ideas each one carries. Come back to it whenever you want to remember who teaches what.

Meet the cast — and what each one teaches

Character	What they carry
Blip	Blending (sound-to-sound → word) — a small bright leaf-green tree frog kid who hops from sound to sound, then slides the sounds together into a word; glowing sound-dots trail behind each hop
Shelby	Digraphs (two letters → one sound) — a gentle spiral-shell snail kid who presses two letter-tiles together so they make ONE new sound (sh / ch / th); the joined tiles glow as one
Mavis	Long vowels (silent-e / vowel teams) — a wise round-eyed owl kid who adds a silent-e or teams two vowels so the vowel says its own name (cap → cape); a little magic-e sparkle on her wingtip
Lark	Oral reading fluency — a cheerful songbird lark kid who reads a whole line smoothly and with a little song (expression); musical notes float up from the page as she reads
