Meet the cast — and what each one teaches

Character	What they carry
Roam	Open exploration + curiosity — the otter-tween with pocket-tunic full of found things who teaches that curiosity-without-destination is a valid mode ('curious feet learn more than busy feet')
Trek	Movement + migration — the red-deer-tween in polysemic wool wrap with pack-and-walking-stick who dignifies all journey-reasons equally — seasons / scarcity / opportunity / safety / curiosity ('some journeys are choice; some are not; every traveler deserves welcome')
Origin	Cultural-heritage anchor — the heron-elder with bundle of family-trees and oral-history-cards who teaches that 'discovery' is a colonial word and every place has been home for someone, often for millennia ('before you visit, learn whose home this is; before you name, learn what it's already called')
Braid	Cultural exchange — the weaverbird-tween with small loom-pouch whose threads-from-many-places stay distinct AND together; teaches anti-appropriation, exchange-not-extraction ('threads from many places — each keeps its color; together they make something new — together, not apart')
Reach	Planetary scale + interconnection — the albatross-elder with continent-patterned wings who teaches Earth-as-one-system, climate-justice, environmental-equity framing ('far is closer than you think; everywhere is somewhere's neighbor')
